

ABSTRACT

A polysilicon layer of a gate structure is covered by a film that blocks introduction of implanted dopants into the polysilicon layer, while allowing implantation into the source and drain. The implant
5 blocking film is removed before metal deposition for the salicide process.

TI-23892P
Page 17
Texas Instruments